

KYLOE

RESTAURANT & GRILL

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Hogmanay menu is only available only on the 31st December from 6.30pm onwards. Guests dining will have their table for the whole evening.

Parties of 6 or more will be asked to pay a discretionary service charge of 10% on the full bill

Table requests cannot be guaranteed; large bookings may be split over multiple tables with a staggered food service.

Provisional bookings will be kept for 7 days. Bookings will only be regarded as confirmed upon receipt of a signed booking form and payment £85 per person.

We will endeavour to accommodate any requests for additional guests after the initial reservation has been made but this will be subject to availability and cannot be guaranteed.

Any changes to the booking must be made in writing.

We will require final dining numbers 7 days before your visit. Deposits will be non-refundable from this point onward.

Please ensure you state any dietary requirements such as requests for vegetarian options (including food allergies) at the time the deposits are paid.

Your sitting time will be confirmed on your booking form. Please make sure your party arrives promptly. Service of the full menu may be affected if your party is late.

All outstanding monies must be settled on the day with your server.

Please note membership discounts are not valid during December.

Please note the dress code is smart/casual. Fancy dress is not permitted.

Anyone under the age of 18 will not be permitted into the restaurant on this evening.

Restaurant guests are welcome to leave the premises to watch the fireworks however re-entry into the building may not be permitted should this conflict with licensing regulations

Management reserve the right to refuse admission at any time.
